Welcome Spring & Happy St. Patrick's Day

Hello again! If you're like me, you're probably ready for winter to be over! Hold on just a bit longer because there are some welcome signs that spring may be just around the corner. We've had a few 50 degree days that did a good job melting the snow, and the sun has actually shined over our area once again. Technically, Spring is just a few weeks away (March 22nd), so in honor of the better weather ahead, we're making special "Sun-Day" cut-out cookies all month long. Come in and enjoy some and keep watching for Spring to arrive!

St. Patrick's Day is March 17th and we're celebrating with shamrock sugar cookies. Come get a "wee-bit-o-the-Irish in you" with these delicious GF treats. Happy St. Patrick's Day, from Donna Marie's!
